

Homework or Homework

Then today I came across a post. Copy-paste from some Internet. A woman writes that homework is very hard.

In form it was well-written, with humor.

And in fact shit-shit.

I life not once, not even 10 times I heard this shit from different women. They uchityvaetsya homework. As Niebieski hard.

This here, this woman-whiner, I'll tell you – there are plenty of men work, compared with which women's romp around the house is a sanatorium. Resort. A holiday house.

You try in the army through the day, from lifting to a release. You toilet hard to clean? Try toilet the size of your apartment to be washed.

- Try it in the summer on road works. When the top burns the sun, and from burning the asphalt. And asphalt not only burns, but it stinks.
- Try the mine in the mining shift work.
- Try it in the field, in the harvesting work. Heat, dust, sweat, dirt.
- Try it in the winter of overhead lines or outdoor lighting repair. When hanging out in a basket on the frosty wind, and hands-bitches frozen so that the screw can't loosen.
- Try to shift from lathe to work.
- Try a day under the car to work.
- Try driving a bus or truck of at least 200-300 km drive.
- The list is long.

I repeat. Rustling around the house it's easy. Even if you have children. Not to say that it's a pleasure, joy in such work a little, it fucks me off. But it's an easy job.

Children are a separate issue. Not one woman saw – gave birth to one child and tired. And waiting for her for this feat on a pedestal and put worship will begin.

Interestingly, even 30-40 years ago almost all women understand that homework is an easy job. Personally, I can't recall to hear such complaints in the '80s. Although if the homework was more difficult than today.

I understand why this shift happened. Why there are many naughty and lazy women. It's all from the freedom and impunity.

Grew up several generations of women who are not even aware that in our world there are fucked up. They are about pizdyuley not even heard of.

As with any living thing is a feature, if a creature living in an atmosphere of freedom and impunity, it be amazed. It's even noticeable in domestic animals.

The men in my life.... still Dating. So fucked up among them less than among women.

In closing, I want to say, warning exclamations like "not all women are like this". Yes, not all. I know that there are sane and adequate.

But their number is reduced in each new generation :)

Our grandparents used to say – kill the chick hammer, will be the woman in gold :)
