or his representative of any impending interruption of service.

3. The contractor shall be responsible for the scheduling of all work and shall coordinate the installation and maintenance of equipment. The equipment shall be installed with proper safety procedures.

4. The contractor shall coordinate the installation and location of all conduits, power, telephone, cable tv and sprinkler systems. The conduit shall be installed with proper safety procedures.