A dialog box for saving a file as a PDF. The left side shows a list of flood maps, with options to select specific maps for saving. The right side shows the output settings, including the file name 'County Map Clean Up 4-18-19.pdf'. The options for quality include vector quality at 600 dpi, raster image quality at 400 dpi, and merge control set to 'Lines Overwrite'. Data options include including layer information, hyperlinks, and bookmarks. Font handling options include capturing fonts used in the drawing and converting all text to geometry.